ABOUT FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

Nonprofit, charitable organization, Memphis Friends of the Library is a diverse group of citizens, who help to inform the general public about Library services, raise money, conduct outreach initiatives and serve as an ongoing voice for the Memphis Public Library System. Incorporated in 1962, Friends have been helping to raise money for programming at all 18 Memphis Public Library locations by sorting through and selling thousands of donated items, like gently-used books, CDs, DVDs, magazines and vinyl records.
