

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

BOO-Books with Friends Perfect for Your Little Ghost or Goblin

MEMPHIS, Tenn. – Parents looking for a safe place to satisfy their child’s sweet tooth this Halloween should stop by the Benjamin L. Hooks Central Library (3030 Poplar Ave.) for BOO-Books with Friends – the perfect place for family-friendly fun! The event, featuring a special appearance by Rockey the Redbird – will be held 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Thursday, Oct. 31, 2019.

Little ghosts and goblins from birth to age 12 are encouraged to wear their costumes and bring Halloween baskets to stock up on free books for readers of all ages, candy, healthy snacks and more. Plus, children’s librarians at Memphis Public Libraries have a few surprise activities in store for all kids who attend.

For more information about BOO-Books with Friends or other Memphis Library Friends events, call 901-415-2840 or visit www.memphislibraryfriends.org.

ABOUT FRIENDS OF MEMPHIS PUBLIC LIBRARIES

Nonprofit, charitable organization, Memphis Friends of the Library is a diverse group of citizens, who help to inform the general public about Library services, raise money, conduct outreach initiatives and serve as an ongoing voice for the Memphis Public Library System. Incorporated in 1962, Friends have been helping to raise money for programming at all 18 Memphis Public Library locations by sorting through and selling thousands of donated items, like gently-used books, CDs, DVDs, magazines and vinyl records.

Becoming a Friends member is easy! Click here to begin!

Disclaimer: Friends of the Library is a freestanding, nonprofit agency supporting Memphis Public Libraries. Friends do not speak for or on behalf of Memphis Public Libraries, the City of Memphis or their brands. All Friends events may be recorded or photographed for promotional use on social media, in traditional media, and/or printed material.